Egis Projects, Inc. Appoints Imran Virani Chief Financial Officer

ORLANDO, Fla. (Aug. 23, 2019) – Egis Projects, Inc., a major developer in infrastructure projects, has appointed Imran Virani as Chief Financial Officer. As Egis Projects CFO, Virani is responsible for providing operational and programmatic support to the organization, directly assisting program directors and program managers on all matters related to budget management, cost benefit analysis, forecasting needs and the securing of new funding.

“Imran’s experience in implementing accounting and controlling functions for start-ups is a system transition requirement,” said Egis Projects CEO Rosa Rountree. “The future of transportation is the incorporation of innovative solutions and effective people. The unique abilities that Imran brings to the table are a tremendous asset for Egis.”

"Working at Egis is about embracing the spirit of entrepreneurship and continuous learning," said Virani. "I am excited to be part of an organization that is so successful in the management of transportation infrastructure projects and services."

Prior to joining Egis Projects, Virani was responsible for the start-up of the Accounting & Controlling function at the newly merged entity, Siemens Gamesa Renewable Energy in Orlando. Previously, he held several leadership positions with Siemens Corporation in Finance and Audit. Earlier in his career, Virani worked for Siemens Shared Services LLC, holding positions in Project Management and Accounting.

Virani is a Certified Internal Auditor and a Certified Management Accountant. He received his bachelor’s degree in Neuroscience and Biology from the University of Toronto, and his master’s degree in Business Administration from the University of Central Florida.
